FORGIVENESS IS UP TO YOU

PARENT CUE * K-3 * Week of March 29th

Learn more about what God says about forgiveness with your family. First, watch this video <https://bit.ly/2xoFkMo> Then, follow up with the activity below!

ACTIVITY: FORGIVENESS PARTY

WHAT YOU NEED:

upbeat music, a fun snack or treat (whatever you have at home!), any party supplies you have on-hand (hats, streamers, decorations, etc.)

WHAT YOU DO:

Throw a forgiveness party!

The father in today's story was overwhelmed with joy when his son returned, so he threw a massive party. You can also celebrate forgiveness by having a mini-party of your own.

If you don't have party supplies, make some! Make a paper chain, banners, or even your own party hats.

As you're enjoying your fun snack or treat, engage your family in a conversation about today's Bible story.

*How did the father react when his son returned? (He forgave him and threw a huge party to celebrate his son's return.)

*Where was the older brother when the younger son returned? (working in the field)

*How did the older brother react when he found out that the party was for his younger brother who'd returned home? (He was angry.)

*Why do you think the older brother was SO mad? Have you ever been mad that someone else got something good that you didn't think they deserved? (We've probably all felt this way. Help your child understand that feeling this way is okay, but when we hold onto those feelings, we can miss out on great things like celebrations and relationships with people we love.)

Then, turn up the music, challenge your kid to a dance-off, and enjoy the rest of your party.

REMEMBER THIS

"Put up with one another.

Forgive one another if you are holding something against someone. Forgive, just as the Lord forgave you."
Colossians 3:13 (NIV)

FORGIVENESS:

deciding that someone who has wronged you doesn't have to pay

BIBLE STORY

I Don't Want to Miss a Thing
(Father and Older Brother)

Luke 15:21-32

SAY THIS

When you don't forgive, you miss out.

PRAYER

If it makes sense when your party is over, spend some time in prayer. If not, try to pray together as a family some time before bed:

"God, thank You for always offering forgiveness to us, no matter what. Thank You for teaching us that when we stay angry instead of forgiving, we can miss out on some incredible experiences. When we feel like holding onto our anger, please help us realize it and let it go. We love You, God. Amen."

FORGIVENESS

Deciding that someone who has wronged you doesn't have to pay

Read Luke 6:37

DAY 1

If we're not careful, we can spend all our time pointing out other people's mistakes instead of taking a long hard look at our own behavior. Once you start judging and blaming, pretty soon you realize you're just as imperfect too.

But remember, the answer is forgiveness! Forgiveness is deciding someone who has wronged you doesn't have to pay. It's a choice. When you refuse to forgive, when you choose to stay angry, you miss out.

Here's your challenge this week. When you find yourself about to blame or judge someone else, stop yourself. Hold your tongue. Don't even let the words come out of your mouth. Make a decision to let it go so you don't miss out.

This will definitely require God's help! As you pray today, ask God to help you remember that you're not perfect. Tell Him that you love Him and ask God to help you forgive so you don't miss out this week.

Read Hebrews 10:30

DAY 2

What are some chores you're responsible for around your house?

What are some chores your mom or dad are responsible for?

According to this verse, whose job is it to judge? Is it yours? Nope, it's God's job. When someone says or does something unkind, you could choose to stay mad. Or you could choose to let God be the judge. It's His job anyway.

God sees and knows all. You can talk to Him and tell Him why you're mad and ask Him to help you decide to forgive. As you pray today, tell God why you're angry or sad. Talk about what happened and how you want to forgive but it's hard. Ask Him to do His job (the judging part) and help you do yours (the forgiving part) so you don't miss out.

Read Matthew 6:14

DAY 3

Riding a bike
Tying your shoes
Reading aloud
Meeting an adult
Walking into a new classroom

Do you know what all these things have in common? They're all things that at one time seemed scary or hard. But once you practiced a little, they're not so bad! The best way to get better at anything is to practice. It's the same with forgiveness. The more you make the choice to forgive, the easier it will become. And, the more you model forgiveness, the more likely the people around you are to forgive too. Don't you want to hang out with friends that choose to forgive?

Ask your mom or dad to tell you about a time when they chose to forgive someone as a kid even when it was really hard. What happened? How did practicing forgiveness in that example help them become better at forgiving the next time?

Thank God for the reminder today that forgiveness takes practice! Ask God to help you choose to forgive this week so you don't miss out.

When you don't forgive, you miss out.

Read Zechariah 7:9

DAY 4

Today's verse includes some big words that need defining!

Justice – the quality of being just, impartial, or fair

Mercy – compassion or patience shown to an offender (someone who has wronged you)

God is asking us to treat others with fairness. To show love and compassion and patience to one another, even those who hurt us. Why? Because that's exactly how God treats us! He treats us fairly. He is loving and patient and kind, always.

In the space below, rewrite today's verse in your own words. Feel free to use the words in the definitions above or to look up the verse in different translations. You could even go BibleGateway.com (with an adult's permission) to read this verse in different translations.

Read the words you've written today as a prayer to God, asking Him to help you choose forgiveness so you don't miss out!
